When my first book was *published in 1980, I was 25 years old. The book sold well, but at that time I didn't think the job of being a writer was for me.

In the fall of 1983, I started writing my second book in a small hotel in a thick forest at the edge of a small hot spring in Gunma. From my room, I could only see the woods during the day and hear a gentle stream. I felt most people would be tired of such a lonely place in a few days. But, one day I found that I had stayed there writing for as long as a month! It surprised me. Then I thought this job might be for me. At the age of 28, I decided to make a living as a writer.
