7 次の英文を読んで、a～eについて本文の内容と一致するものを①～④の中から1つずつ選びなさい。

Mark Boyle didn't use any money for three years between 2008 and 2011. He has lived without using electricity in his home since 2016. He grew up in ^{*1}Ireland and when he finished college, he moved to England and managed a natural food company.

Mark has been interested in other ways of living. In 2007, he decided to try living without using money after he bought an old ^{*2}camper, and started living on a natural farm. He worked on the farm for three days a week. In exchange, he could stay there and grow his own vegetables.

Born in 1979, Mark has written four books. He uses the money from his books to help people live in a special area, where people exchange services instead of working for money. When Mark needed new tires for his bike, he wrote a ^{*3}blog post about ^{*4}eco-friendly tires for a company. As a thank you, the company gave him free tires.

People have different opinions about Mark's unusual life. Some think his ideas are crazy, but others say his lifestyle should be respected. They try to use less money themselves. On the other hand, most people love hot showers and the internet too much to live like Mark.

^{*1}Ireland : アイルランド (国名) ^{*2}camper : キャンピングカー
